

Technical Rider - Pigs in a Canoe and Other Watery Stories

HIGH RESOLUTION PHOTOGRAPHS AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST

General Information

- Phone or email check in prior to performance day will be two days
- Arrival to set up 90 – 120 minutes, Strike 60 minutes space needed throughout.
- Running time of show – 55 minutes with Q&A following
- Load in – clear of cars, gates opened, door to be propped open, if truck cannot stay in load in area then other parking arrangements made for us.
- Dressing room and toilet, drinking water
- Pictures during the show – video not allowed. Happy to pose after the show.
- Doors can open 10 minutes before performance time – unless unforeseen circumstances
- Bells, intercom etc turned off during show.
- Max audience size: 150
- Best for ages 5 – 10 years and families,
- Artist talk with children older than 10 years old is an option.
- Children sit on floor, chairs for adults
- Introduction (to be supplied)

Personnel

This is a one-person show and there are no additional tech or otherwise staff.

- Help unloading/loading is appreciated
- Contact person/Someone in charge on hand that can answer questions.
- In a theatre setting when we are using the theatre's lighting – we require a lighting technician, who can follow a cued script.
- In a theatre setting when we are using theatre's sound – we need a sound technician who can follow a cued script. Can be same person as lighting.
- There are approximately 30 cues.

Sound and Lighting

- Travel with own sound, computer and lighting system controlled by our Multiplay software
- 110 amp accessible plugs – 4 of them. If not accessible with our 20 foot cords then provide additional extension cords
- Please alert us to radio frequencies that might affect wireless microphone transmissions
- Space needs to be able to be made dark
- Low light remain on through out show (i.e.: light on in hallway)

Stage

- Size 20' wide x 18' deep x minimum 8' ceiling. No wing space or back pass necessary.
- Clean and clear of equipment etc.

Front of house and Marketing Support

- Easel for our show board
- Postcard giveaway
- Pre or post show drop in or pre registered puppet workshop is available to book for additional fee.
- Posters, Postcards, website, press releases, performer interviews,