

Rod Puppets Look into Alberta History

Great for Grades 3 - 4

This crate pairs exploration of the rod puppet genre with the rich history of Alberta. Teachers can choose from a variety of interactions and work at their own pace. The crate contains:

- A set of costumed rod puppets for students to perform with.
- A professional script based on a true story of Charles Hatfield, entitled "The Rainmaker," for students to act out a story from Alberta's past.
- Supplies for 30 students to create their own rod puppets.
- Story starters and guidelines for students to write their own plays
- Resources for teachers - a full instruction guide, power point instructions and rod puppet overview and more.
